

Employment Opportunities with the Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD):

Message for Applicants

The LACCD academic employment portal has moved to a new location. If you have previously filed an application for employment, you will be required to set-up a new applicant profile. Please click here to create a new applicant profile.

- Please make sure you write down your email address and keep it with you for future use.
- Please note that your email is your user name.
- Please make sure your application is correct before submitting; it is not possible to edit your application after submission. If you need to make changes before the application deadline, you may withdraw your application and resubmit.
- You can't make any changes to your application after the application deadline.

Please note that our online application system will be briefly unavailable due to a software update on Friday, May 5th, 2017 from 5:30 pm PST to 10:30 am PST. We apologize for any inconvenience due this update.
